Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue is the journal of the American Association of Teaching and Curriculum. The purpose of AATC as originally defined in Article 1, Section 2A and Section 2B of the AATC Constitution is: To constitute a national learned society for the scholarly field of teaching and curriculum (teaching is the more inclusive concept, curriculum is an integral part of teaching the "what to teach" aspect). In the larger universities, faculty members identified with this field of scholarly study are typically affiliated with the departments of curriculum and instruction, teacher education, and elementary secondary education. To promote the scholarly study of teaching and curriculum. All analytical and interpretive approaches that are appropriate for the scholarly study of teaching and curriculum shall be encouraged. In fulfillment of this mission, this volume addresses a range of issues across the broad fields of teaching and curriculum for all ages, grade levels, and types of programs.

Each puzzle consists of a grid containing blocks surrounded by bold lines. The object is to fill all empty squares so that the numbers 1 to N (where N is the number of rows or columns in the grid) appear exactly once in each row and column and the numbers in each block produce the result shown in the top-left corner of the block according to the math operation appearing on the top of the grid. In CalcuDoku a number may be used more than once in the same block.

It measures 7.5 x 9.75 inches in size with 100 lined, wide ruled pages. It's a great size for carrying in bags and backpacks.
