Be Honest Sermon by David Johnston, John 21:15-17 ...

As followers of Christ, we aren't honest because society tells us to be honest. Our society isn't honest. And, worse, even rewards those who get away with dishonesty. It is evident in our government, our politicians, our judicial system, our businesses, our schools. The pervasive thought is if you can get away with it, more power to you.

Sermon: Honesty: The Complete Virtue - 2 Kings 12

The Book of Psalms has provided prayers and hymns for worship all through the history of the people of God. New Testament writers used the psalms to educate disciples about the nature of God's kingdom. For this reason, the psalms provide a vital resource for preaching in the church today. The psalms express the deepest and most heartfelt human emotions one will ever witness.
