Eatherly was the pilot who gave the all-clear for the dropping of the atomic bomb on

Hiroshima: an action the implications of which he had not known at the time.

Returning from the mission and learning of the devastating impact of the atomic bomb Eatherly was unable to calmly accept his role.

Though he was treated as a hero in the press, Eatherly was morally distraught over his actions and felt that he could not silently accept the accolades. Over the course of some 71 letters Anders and Eatherly struggled with the problem of taking
