His message is clear: we are not at the mercy of the subconscious, or helpless before forces we cannot understand. [We are Gods couched in creaturehood.] Seth says, [We are given the ability to form our experience as our thoughts and feelings become actualized.] [Seth was one of my first metaphysical teachers. But how do our realities merge and combine to form mass reactions such as the overthrow of governments, the birth of a new religion, wars, epidemics, earthquakes, and new periods of art, architecture, and technology? In this pioneering work, Seth explores the connection between personal beliefs and world events. He pinpoints the unconscious, and often negative, beliefs pervading science and religion, medicine and mythology, and offers thought-provoking reflections on Darwinism, Freudianism, religions, cults, and medical beliefs. With fascinating implications, Seth asserts that the personal impulses we are often taught to see as dangerous, chaotic, or contradictory, are instead crucial to the best interests of the species and the natural world, for they lead us to live [not only as loving caretakers, but as partners with other species.] [Only people who trust their spontaneous impulses can be consciously wise enough to choose from a myriad of probably futures the most promising events...] [Jane Roberts, Speaking for Seth

Yet you allow yourselves often to become blind to brilliant aspects of your own existence.] [Jane Roberts, Speaking for Seth]The Seth books were of great benefit to me on my spiritual journey and helped me to see another way of looking at the world.[] Gerald G.
