I have work, play and hybrid stuff. The hybrid stuff tends to be things like blouses, cardigans, jumpers and jackets as well as ankle boots and ballet flats. I wouldn't wear them mucking about in the park but if we go to a museum etc during play time they can be play clothes as well as jeans.

I do think that dressing up for an office job does make you feel more "serious" about your work. I have always had "work clothes" and "home clothes" and don't mix them. That helps me feel in "work mode" when I am at work, and to switch off and relax when I'm at home - I change my clothes when I get home from work.
