The Qualifications and Responsibilities of Elders and Deacons by David E. Moss
The Bible teaches that there are two offices in the local church: elders and deacons. Elder is an office of oversight. Deacon is an office of service. Together they provide the leadership and ministry that is vital to the health of the local church.

Deacon Training Manual

Introduction from Dr. David C. Little It is wonderful to be saved! Praise to God for His unspeakable gift. It is a wonder God doesn't take us straight to heaven at the moment of our salvation. He loves us so much and has paid such a price for our salvation that you would think that He would want us to be with Him immediately. But God doesn't do that. He leaves us ...

Elders or deacons have a vital calling and function in building strong congregations. But they need clear guidelines and training to be effective. This manual provides practical instruction to help pastors and congregational leaders bring clarity and purpose to this key role. Every session in Training Ministry Teams reflects on Jesus' method of training leaders. In "Sent Out with Instructions" lay leaders will learn what they need to minister as deacons and elders. An "As You Go" section contains group assignments designed to move participants to act.

The author goes to the Biblical roots of being a leader in the Church. His thesis is that all Christians are "redeemed to Serve" and some are "Ordained to Lead." The book contains many practical helps for the organization and operation of churches.

To help readers discover what the Scriptures say about the duty of a deacon, O'Donnell explores the biblical basis for these servants of God, giving relevant application to the works they are to perform.

Identifying and equipping men for the role of church Elder is not an easy task...The role of Elder is perhaps one of the most important roles in the world, since the church is both the body and bride of Jesus. That means church leaders need more than surface opinions about the men who might possibly fit the role of Elder. They need a way to evaluate and train those candidates. This workbook-style handbook is designed to help church leaders do just that, in a wise, careful, and thoroughly Biblical way. Some contexts where this handbook may be helpful:

- When an existing Elder team needs to bring others onto their team. When a Pastor needs to establish an Elder team from scratch. When an Elder team needs a “refresher” about their role, or would like additional training regarding the Biblical mandate for Elders. As a discipleship curriculum for men, where the role of Elder is held up as a “model” for how they can lead their families with the heart of a shepherd. This handbook is not offered as a magic formula or fool-proof method for finding or equipping men for the role of Elder. No such thing exists. Scripture clearly teaches that men are only appointed to the role of Elder by the determination of the Holy Spirit (Acts 20:28). Instead, this handbook is designed to serve as a tool in that Spirit-led process. It is an aid in discerning the will of the Spirit, first through assessment of the man being considered, and secondly through training for those who appear to be called to serve as Elders. With over 260 study questions, a variety of self-assessment tools, scripture memorization, and "quizzes" to test the candidate's understanding and application of the concepts included, The Elder Training Handbook is a
