Living this "football life" has afforded me extraordinary opportunities, exposure to life's options and blessings untold. That life filled my personal "playbook" with the wisdom to call an audible, pass, run or, go for the two-point conversion as I lived each day. Yes, I observed the "thrill of victory and the agony of defeat" from the stands and sidelines. Most importantly, I'd beheld strength, courage and purpose. And, those qualities molded me into the person I am today. I got off the bench after merely existing and got into the game of living.

This is the story of a financially rich, highly educated woman who became a financially poor brain damaged woman. Whose brain in 1998, was struck by the virus, Herpes Simplex Encephalitis (HSE). She was in a coma for 7 weeks. Two neurologists predicted she would be a vegetable. When she came to, she was totally disoriented. She had no comprehension of what had happened to her. She had no short term memory and feared that she was going crazy. She was totally dependent on others. Fortunately, her power of attorney, and ex-Catholic nun , and psychotherapist Michele Toomey, PhD continued her counseling and wrote musings based on those sessions, which were the issues Marlene was struggling with. These musings became Marlene's bible, and kept her going. This enabled Marlene to reclaim her life. This is also a story about caregiving and care receiving.
