current assets. The text is designed to provide students with a comprehensive and practical grounding in the practice of company accounting, under the new International procedures, whilst providing essential information on why and how company accounting entries and disclosures are made.

Company Accounting, 10th edition has been thoroughly updated to reflect the various and ongoing reforms as a result of Australia's adoption of international financial reporting standards. Containing several all-new chapters, this edition provides an authoritative and reliable overview of the various changes required within the Framework and a selection of key accounting standards governing corporate entities. The text provides students with a comprehensive overview of the practice and principles of company accounting, and helps them develop the practical grounding to reinforce their understanding. The 10th edition presents essential 'must know' information on accounting for a corporate entity and the requirements for externally disclosing the financial position of the entity. Company Accounting, 10th Edition retains the hallmark features seen in previous editions of the title, including a high attention to detail, practical application of accounting standards, provision of a conceptual basis, and depth of analysis.

Company Accounting 7th edition continues to be the authoritative textbook on corporate financial reporting. The new edition has been thoroughly updated to reflect the numerous and ongoing reforms as a result of Australia's adoption of IFRSs. The text succinctly documents recent adjustments by the IASB/AASB in respect to the presentation of financial statements, accounting for intangible assets, accounting for income tax and the new reporting recommendations for business combinations under Phase II. The text provides students with a comprehensive and practical grounding in the practice and principles of company accounting, essential information on why and how company accounting entries and disclosures are made, and the process of business combination for a corporate group. New to this Edition New chapters on Corporate Governance, Leases and Equity Accounting. Chapter 8 Business Combinations outlines proposed changes to ASSB3 as a result of the Exposure Draft of Proposed Amendments to IFRS3. Revised to accord with changes in AASB as a consequence of continuing reforms with IFRS. More 'Learning Check' summaries in all chapters reiterate and summarise important concepts. New 'Student Activity Section' in each chapter contains a summary, demonstration problems, discussion questions, case studies, graded exercises and problems. Reorganised end-of-chapter sections contains more diverse activity scenarios for students in an attempt to develop a broader skill base. Features 'Learning Checks' support chapter learning objectives and summarise key knowledge for students. They appear throughout each chapter and are ideal for self-study purposes. Thorough illustrative examples and demonstration problems with various examples supported with step-by-step narrations.

Hoggett is a senior lecturer at Curtin University of Technology in Western Australia and is co-author of 'Accounting in Australia' and 'Financial Accounting in Australia'.

"Shows how humans have brought us to the brink and how humanity can find solutions. I urge people to read with humility and the daring to act." Harpal Singh, former Chair, Save the Children, India, and former Vice Chair, Save the Children International In conversations with people all over the world, from government officials and business leaders to taxi drivers and schoolteachers, Blair Sheppard, global leader for strategy and leadership at PwC, discovered they all had surprisingly similar concerns. In this prescient and pragmatic book, he and his team sum up these concerns in what they call the ADAPT framework: Asymmetry of wealth; Disruption wrought by the unexpected and often problematic consequences of technology; Age disparities--stresses caused by very young or very old populations in developed and emerging countries; Polarization as a symptom of the breakdown in global and national consensus; and loss of Trust in the institutions that underpin and stabilize society. These concerns are in turn precipitating four crises: a crisis of prosperity, a crisis of technology, a crisis of institutional legitimacy, and a crisis of leadership. Sheppard and his team analyze the complex roots of these crises--but they also offer solutions, albeit often seemingly counterintuitive ones. For example, in an era of globalization, we need to place a much greater emphasis on developing self-sustaining local economies. And as technology permeates our lives, we need computer scientists and engineers conversant with sociology and psychology and poets who can code. The authors argue persuasively that we have only a decade to make headway on these problems. But if we tackle them now, thoughtfully, imaginatively, creatively, and energetically, in ten years we could be looking at a dawn instead of darkness.
