The expectations: 1. Teachers across the district are in the same target area, and have taught the students lessons addressing the standards and content included in each semester. The pacing guide suggests, but does not dictate, the number of days spent on a topic, chapter, or activity. 2. Teachers are presenting on grade level, rigorous, and relevant lessons- the number of days or when lessons are presented is subject to the lesson, the students, and numerous outside factors.

Pacing Guide for 5th Grade Math. The fifth-grade math curriculum was designed to be implemented over the course of a single school year. It includes seven units of study over 141 instructional days (including days for lessons, flex days, and unit assessments). We intentionally did not account for all 180 instructional days in order for teachers to fit in additional review or extension, teacher-created assessments, and school-based events.
