The Altar of Zeus, also called 'Pergamonaltar' is a monumental structure built-in memory of the victory of the Pergamon Kingdom against the Galatians. The Altar of Pergamon, referred to as the Throne of Satan in a short narrative in the Revelation Section of the Book of St. John, is a very impressive structure.

Zeus was the king of the Gods. Zeus' throne was made out of black marble that had small pieces of gold built into it for decoration. The throne was so large that it had seven steps leading up to it, each one colored with a color of the rainbow. There was a large blue covering over the throne, symbolizing the sky.
