In the next 34 years I pastored churches of all sizes, my last church having more than 7,000 members. What I have recorded in this book are some of the things I tried to teach them.

It also involves an approval process by the denomination or the local Baptist church. The requirements for ordination as a Baptist minister vary from one Baptist denomination or local church to another.

Paul Powell, in “The New Minister’s Manual” wrote, The purpose of ordination is twofold: First, to signify that the individual has decided to devote his life to the church’s ministry; and second, to indicate that the church is approving and authorizing them to serve the church in ministry. Ordination is a recognition of God’s call and the church’s approval.

An ordination is not "your" ordination; it is the church's ordination of you through the work of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, the focus of the service is on what the Spirit of God through the church is doing, not on the candidate for ordination. Practically, this means that the ordination service should not be more than 75 minutes long.
