The definitive guide to living off the land. Even as the world seems to move faster and faster each day, many people are becoming ever more interested in self-reliance. They are spending more time outdoors, hiking and camping. They are growing and preserving their own food. Exploring self-reliance topics is how more and more people are staying grounded in a busy world. Homesteading is one area that falls under the self-reliance umbrella: This book explains how to raise chickens in your backyard, harvest rainwater and make it safe for consumption, save seeds from your garden harvest, and preserve food from one season to the next. The outdoor skills chapter discusses the basics of tracking, wild plants that have medicinal uses, and how to keep clean while in the field. DIY projects are always popular with the self-reliance audience: This chapter explains how to make a homemade waterproof oilcloth tarp from a thrift store bed sheet, how to build and use a vacucanner for food storage, and, perhaps most importantly, how to roast and brew coffee while off the grid. Survival planning is certainly part of self-reliance as well, and information on caching supplies for emergencies, how to use a bow and arrow to acquire food, and why cotton clothing is a horrible choice for outdoor pursuits are all covered in this book. For everyone who is looking for ways to be more self-sufficient, the Backwoods Survival Guide is here to help.

The traditional rhyme is expanded to describe some of Humpty Dumpty's other mishaps.

This book constitutes the revised selected papers of the 12th International Workshop on Information Search, Integration and Personalization, ISIP 2018, held in Fukuoka, Japan, in May 2018. Western er? is a specially commissioned publication produced as part of the exhibition of the same name at Tramway in December 2005. To mark the fact that 2005 was the 400th anniversary of Cervantes novel 'Don Quixote', Tramway invited art / design collective Lapland to co-curate an exhibition using the novel as a starting point. The publication documents the resulting work and contains commissioned writing from Prof Allan Ingram (University of Northumbria), Prof Jeremy Robbins (University of Edinburgh) and artists Jim Colquhoun and Susannah Thompson.
